28 ORDER DENYING PLAINTIFF'S
MOTION FOR TEMPORARY
RESTRANDING ORDER

Docket No. 24

Previously, the Court denied a motion filed by Plaintiff for a temporary restraining order (“TRO”). See Docket No. 23 (order). The Court has now received another motion for a TRO from Plaintiff. As with the other motion, Plaintiff's papers are both difficult to read and comprehend. From what the Court can discern, Plaintiff seeks a number of forms of relief, including but not limited to the following:

- a referral of prosecutors prosecuting him in Wisconsin state court to the Department of Justice;
- an order restraining Defendants from engaging in racketeering, bribery, and money laundering;
- an order restraining Defendants from poisoning his medication and food;
- an order restraining the Singaporean and Malaysian governments, one or both of whom conspired with Democrats to bribe unidentified persons which resulted in the criminal prosecution against him; and
- an order restraining clerks of courts from violating their duties.

The Court denies the motion for a TRO for largely the same reasons it denied his prior

1 motion for a TRO. Plaintiff has failed to establish that he is likely to succeed on the merits. There
2 is no evidence to support Plaintiff's claims; Plaintiff's claims are speculative and/or fanciful.
3 Furthermore, it is not clear how this Court has jurisdiction with respect to the criminal prosecution
4 in Wisconsin. See Docket No. 18 (Order at 1) (taking note of Younger abstention and personal 5 jurisdiction).

6 Finally, the Court notes that a final judgment has been entered in this case. Thus, this case
7 is closed and the Court shall not accept any further filings from Plaintiff in this case.

8 This order disposes of Docket No. 24.
